Ill J of Indian shipping industry

♦152. SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: Will the Minister of SURFACE TRANSPORT be pleased to state:

(a) whether delay by Government agen cies in approving ship acquisition propo sals, avoidable licensing control, lack of professional management among shipping companies and outdated fleet composition are responsible for the ills of the Indian Shipping industry; and

(b) if so, what steps have been taken by Government to restore the shipping in dustry to normal health?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF SURFACE TRANSPORT (SHRI RAJESH PILOT); (a) and (b) Worldwide recession in shipping is the main factor that has affected the Indian shipping companies.

The recent measures taken by the Government to revive shipping industry include providing financial assistance to viable shipping companies through rehabilitation proposals, helping shipping companies in getting increased share of Indian cargo, simplifying procedures for acquisition and scrapping of vessels, encouraging acquisition of specialised, modern fuel-efficient vessels etc. The guidelines framed by the Government with the help of Shipping Credit & Investment Company of India Limited for rehabilitation of viable Private Sector shipping companies include moratorium on repayment of loans, interest holiday for a limited period, rescheduling the repayments of loans etc. These measures would help the potentially viable shipping companies to overcome the adverse effects of the long global recession and lead to the creation of a stronger and financially viable shipping industry.
